

Michael Anthony

Michael Anthony has been in the floral and event design business for over 12 years, receiving formal training at Parsons School of Design. While based in New York, Michael became Vice President of the event firm Bardin Palomo, where he designed florals and events for numerous private and corporate clients, such as Tiffany's, Bergdorf-Goodman, and American Express. Michael then took a position as Director of Special Events at Podesta Baldocchi, San Francisco, where he worked with many of the city's major corporations and institutions, including Montgomery Securities, Bank of America, Grace Cathedral, San Francisco Opera and San Francisco Ballet.

Four years ago, Michael started his own business, which is now located in the Fairmont Hotel. The studio consistently and reliably provides flowers to guests and for events hosted in the hotel. Most of the studio's work, however, is for clients all over the Bay Area and beyond – Los Angeles, New York, Boston, Miami and Honolulu (travelling is not an issue!). The floral style of the company is best characterized by a liberal use of contrasting textures, across a wide range of styles that contribute to a full, lush attitude.
